Other Species

E. pilularis, Black-butt. Slender growth, used for telegraph poles and house carpentry; also good honey producer. $2.50 per 100, or in pots, larger trees, 25 cents each.

E. cornuta, Yate, a dense, beautiful growing tree, used as an ornamental shade tree; flowers large. Will not stand as much frost as the preceding. $2.50 per 100, or larger trees in pots, 25 cents each.

E. stuartiana, Apple-scented Eucalypt. Thrives best in coast counties. Good for wind-break; useful for fence posts and fuel; very hardy. In pots 25c each.

E. citriodora, Lemon-scented Gum. A stately, beautiful tree, profuse bloomer; very valuable for timber. Adapted to mild climate of the coast. $2.50 per 100; in pots 25 cents each.

E. saligna. Lofty, straight-stemmed tree, valuable for timber or carpenter work; thrives near the coast. 25 cents each.

E. diversicolor, Karri. One of the grandest of the Eucalypts, grows nearly 400 feet high. Hardy, but prefers coast counties. 25 cents each.

- E. gunnii*, Cider Eucalypt. Very hardy tree; good as wind-break and forest cover. 25 cents each.
- E. leucoxydon*, South Australian Blue Gum. Very hardy, growing anywhere. Useful for fuel and timber. $2.50 per 100, in pots 25 cents each.
- E. ficifolia*. Small growing, but most beautiful bloomer, with crimson flowers. 25 cents each.
- E. regnans*; recently introduced from Australia; said to be one of the handsomest and grandest trees of the whole family. In pots 25 cents each.
- Larger trees in 5 and 7 inch pots 50 cents each, of E. tereticornis, E. corynocalyx, E. rudis, E. polyanthema.
- Special prices on lots of 10,000 or more.

ACACIAS

- Acacia mollissima*, Black Wattle.
- A. decurrens*, Green Wattle.
- A. dealbata*, Silver Wattle.
- A. melanoxylon*, Australian Black-wood.
- A. pycnantha*, Golden Wattle.

These trees are generally classed among those for park, avenue, and street planting, their economic value being forgotten or not known. They are almost indestructible as fence posts, or for hardwood purposes, and we therefore offer the above at the low price of $25 per 100, 2 to 3 feet, and 3 to 4 feet sizes, in pots, or 35 cents and 50 cents each.

BLACK LOCUST

- Robinia pseudacacia*. The valuable, well known timber tree, planted very extensively in the Western States. Succeeds anywhere. Strong seedlings 1 to 3 feet, 1 year old, $2.50 per 100, $20 per 1,000.

CATALPA SPECIOSA

- The "Western Catalpa," unsurpassed for railroad ties, posts, etc. Strong 1 year seedlings, $2.50 per 100, $20 per 1,000. Large trees, 5 to 7 feet, for street planting, 50 cents each, $35 per 100.

CASUARINA

- She-oak or Beef-wood. Wood hard as best hickory, deep red color. Trees perfectly hardy; branches slender, with jointed needle-like leaves. Thrives in dry locations. Several varieties, in boxes, $5 per 100, in pots 25c each.

- Many other trees and shrubs described in general list. The above constitute a few "Useful Trees" for fuel and timber.
